Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claim 20, 32, 34, 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Deleo et al (6,340,663).

Deleo et al disclose a cleaning wipe for hard surfaces such as ceramics and glass (col. 2, lines 5-12) wherein said wipe is impregnated with at least one layer of nonwoven material and comprises a surfactant (col. 3, lines 3-10). Specifically, said wipe is a nonwoven sheet of at least one material made of pulp, polyester, rayon, nylon, polypropylene, polyethylene and mixtures thereof (col. 3, lines 25-31). Deleo et al further include surfactants, thickeners, solvents and chelating agents (columns 5-10). Note, see Table II of a thickened formulation for the liquid cleanser.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 20-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sherry et al (6,716,805).

Sherry et al disclose a hard-surface cleansing wipe for glass and other hard surfaces wherein said wipe is made of wood pulp and synthetic materials such as polyethylene, polypropylene, polyamide and polyesters (col. 26, lines 5-20). Sherry et al teach that said substrates are thermally bonded (col. 27, lines 1-19) with thermoplastic fibers such as bicomponent fibers including sheath/core fibers having polymeric combinations (col. 28, lines 12-29). Sherry et al specifically teach that said wipe may consists of one or more layers including an optional scrub layer for (col. 28, lines 43-46) and further comprise an absorbent layer that comprises cleansing solution comprising detergents and cleansing solutions (col. 44, lines 3-23).

Sherry et al do not teach with sufficient specificity each of the claimed limitations, however, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, with reasonable expectations of success, to combine the layer(s) and the cleansing solutions of Sherry et al to produce a wipe for the purpose of cleansing dishware in the absence of a showing to the contrary, because Sherry et al teach multilayered wipe for use of glass, ceramics and other hard surface material that comprise dishware material.
